

TYPE STICKERS.—We casually mentioned a day or two ago that the newly elected Mayor of Baltimore was a short time since a journeyman printer. The instances are not rare in which those bred in the profession of printing have become distinguished and honored. To say nothing of Franklin, the beacon light of the craft, we have in our day more than one instance of this honorable distinction. Isaac Hill, the Governor of New Hampshire, was a journeyman printer; Samuel Armstrong, late Mayor of this city, was once a journeyman printer; Mr. Knapp, the Secretary of the State in Vermont, was a printer. And what is of more consequence in the editorial profession, some of the most distinguished were regularly bred in the craft. Our neighbor Greene, the popular editor of the Morning Post, was a ragged little roller-boy. Mr. Homer of the Gazette was brought up on pic-a-brewer. We recollect many years since, of seeing a tow-headed overgrown boy in an obscure printing office in Vermont. That boy is now Mr. Greeley, the talented editor of the New York Tribune. Of equal obscure origin was the editor of the New York Spirit of the Times, Mr. Wm. T. Porter.

The first we ever saw of Deacon Weld, the editor of the New York Sun, and a clever writer for various magazines, &c., was in a printing office at Lowell, when he was no higher in grade than 'printer's devil.' The truth is, if a boy has genius, the art of printing will draw it out and set it to work. Printers with the same amount of natural talent always make the most popular editors, because they imbibe the tact of the profession. Schooled among 'types and shadows,' they have every opportunity of studying public taste and of diversifying their minds so as to meet the various wants of their various readers. The discipline of their minds may not be so severe and rigid as that required for eminence in the legal profession; but this is a peculiarity which the great mass of readers care nothing about, and it is unfavorable to a free interchange of mind with mind. Tact—give us editorial tact. In our profession it is every thing.—Boston Times.

The white of an egg is said to be an antidote to corrosive sublimate; and a strong infusion of tobacco saved a child in New York, who had swallowed arsenic. Try them.

WORTHY OF REMARK.—Gen. Patterson, who so promptly called out the Philadelphia volunteers, and marched them to Harrisburg, to quell the Locofoco mob, who were rioting in the Capitol, is a political friend of Van Buren; also Judge Blythe, by whom the warrants, for the arrest of the Locofoco leaders, were issued. Their conduct is highly commendable.—Jour. & Reg.

NEW YORK BANKING LAW.—Under this law, banks have been established; the capital paid in of which amounts to $9,000,000, with the privilege of being increased to $100,000,000.

THE SILK GROWERS' CONVENTION.—The Baltimore Chronicle of the 11th, says:—'Upwards of one hundred delegates from various parts of the Union have arrived in this city, to attend the convention of Silk Growers, which meets to-day. It is supposed that the convention, after organizing here, will adjourn to Washington, for the purpose of bringing their important designs more fully before the representatives of the nation. A specimen of silk vesting, manufactured at Economy, Beaver Co., Pa., has been exhibited to us, which, for strength of texture and beauty and brilliancy of color, quite equals any of the foreign manufacture.'

A free banking law, similar in almost every respect to that of New York, has passed the House of Representatives of Georgia by a majority of sixteen. Its passage by the Senate was probable.

ANOTHER AWFUL EXPLOSION.—By an express ship from the Natchez Courier, of December 4, we have intelligence of the destruction of the steamboat Augusta, with the death or injury of nearly all the passengers and crew.—Globe.

INMUNARITY AND HUMANITY.—A poor little girl aged about 11 years, was discovered on the sidewalk in Waverly Place, on Monday evening during the snow storm, almost in a state of nudity, and half petrified with the intense cold, by Mrs. Lord, residing at 37 in that street, who had her conveyed to her house, and immediately sent for the family physician. As soon as the poor child had sufficiently recovered to be enabled to walk, information was sent to the office of the upper police, whether she was conveyed and examined by the magistrates. It appeared that the child was daily sent out by its step father, residing in 12th street, to beg, and was nightly subject to a severe beating if she did not return with the sum required. The poor girl was ordered to be detained till morning. During the night, however, the keeper of the watch house foolishly allowed her to be taken away by her step father, and nothing further has been heard of her.—N. Y. Times.

ANecdotes of the Giraffe.—The New Orleans Sun relates a humorous story of a very well dressed and genteel looking person, who was curious to see the Giraffe, and who stopped up to the 'man who' receives the money with—
'Is the Giraffe to be seen here?'
'Yes Sir.'
'I want to see him.'
'Very well Sir.'
'The price is fifty cents, isn't it?'
'One dollar, Sir. Fifty cents for servants.'
'Well, I'm a servant.'
'You a servant?'
'Yes, Sir.'
'The d—! Whose?'
'Yours, Sir—your humble servant.'
'Walk in, and take a seat. The joke is worth the price of admission.'

FRACAS AT LOUISVILLE.—We learn from a gentleman from Louisville last evening, that a quarrel took place at the Globe House in that city on Saturday night last, by which a Mr. Meek and a friend of his, were killed. A brother of Judge Wilkinson, of Mississippi, and a Mr. Holmes were also wounded. The particulars we shall give in due season.—Cin. News.

BLACK LIST.
Ragamuffins and ringtailed roasters—
Blue spirits and green,
Blue spirits and gray."

rise up from the vasty deep—return from Canada, Texas, Illinois and Wisconsin, and listen while we overhurl the big-book of your characters, and then take our receipt and go home without delay. Verily your name is legion, and poor devil you are in earnest, to cheat a printer out of his paper.

Each honest foot should wear a cow-hide boot. To kick such speaking rascals from the world.

A. BRAINARD CROSBY, Constable of Waterville, evaporated between two towns—gone to Winnebago county, Illinois. The poor goose owes us $7.50
PHILIP ORENCHAM, (spells his name all-up) a literary constable from Maumee—dried up and blew away to Illinois. He did much credit to the place—especially when he left. Owes about 5.00
JAMES PORTER of Brainerd—popped off from a superabundance of fixed air. Owes

WILLIAM STAFFORD, steam saw-mill man at Marango—steamed off to Delaware county, and forgot to pay for his paper. Amount 3.50
WILLIAM C. CAMPBELL, painter of Perryburg—got cramped in his circumstances, and put through the black swamp—he is now at Lower Sandusky, he has not run again. Total 1.50
A. H. LANGDON, Providence—long legged fellow, and much given to drinking cheap liquor—gone to parts unknown. Provisionally owes us only 1.50
ED. HENDERSON, Maumee, ran for Justice of the Peace, and then ran away—succeeded the last time, and disappeared in a blaze of glory, like a genuine loco loco. Dr. to tickets and paper, say 5.00

UAI SCRIBNER, (urinus spiritus of a goose) Danvers, a poor, miserable, sore-eyed sucker, that got into our subscription list, by virtue of the only decent suit of clothes he ever had on his back—ran away in about six months, owing us 1.75
This is but the beginning of a long roll, and we intend to amplify and enlarge our custom increases in that line. It is not those alone who have run, that will get served up, but those that stand, but won't deliver—those that cry "never subscribed," "don't like your paper and won't pay for it," and the like, and those that promise and neglect to perform, and many other difficult cases. In short, gentlemen delinquents, pay, or look out!
